Traineeship in Hospitality

ABOUT – Traineeships

Traineeships are part of the Government's plans to tackle youth unemployment. They are designed to give young people the skills, qualifications, experience and behaviours that employers look for when recruiting for apprenticeships and other jobs.

Traineeships are for young people:

- who are not currently in a job and have little work experience, but are focused on gaining employment at some point?
- aged 16 to 19-years old and forms part of the study programme provision
- aged 16 to 24-years old and qualified below Level 3
- whom providers and employers believe have a reasonable chance of being ready for employment or an apprenticeship within six months of engaging in a traineeship.

Traineeships are intended to last between six weeks and six months. There is a high degree of flexibility in the way Traineeships have been designed to allow providers and employers to tailor Traineeships to the needs of individual Trainees and local employers.
