

NOCN_Cskills Awards Entry Level Award in Introduction to Plumbing (Entry 3) & NOCN_Cskills Awards Entry Level Certificate in Introduction to Plumbing (Entry 3)

Notification:

Dear Colleague,

As part of our commitment to provide qualifications in line with industry requirements we regularly review all qualifications across all occupations.

We are pleased to confirm that NOCN will be offering two new qualifications in Plumbing under the Building and Construction sector in the Entry Level 3 suite, commencing 1 February 2022.

- NOCN_Cskills Awards Entry Level Award in Introduction to Plumbing (Entry 3) - (610/0249/5)

This is a training qualification designed to introduce learners to the plumbing industry. It is a steppingstone towards further knowledge and skills relating to plumbing at a higher level. It focusses on developing the skills of the learners, the necessity and basic requirements of health and safety and basic plumbing knowledge centred around tools, equipment materials and jointing.

It is the first step for a new entrant to the construction industry.

The qualification has 2 units. Each unit has its own assessment.

- Introducing Health and Safety in Construction: Assessment Booklets
- Introducing Plumbing: Practical Tasks with accompanying workbook.

- NOCN_Cskills Awards Entry Level Certificate in Introduction to Plumbing (Entry 3) - (610/0246/X)

The qualification's purpose is to introduce learners to work as a plumber. It focusses on developing the skills of the learners, the necessity and basic requirements of health and safety and basic plumbing knowledge centred around tools, equipment materials and jointing.

The qualification has a range of units. Most units have their own assessment developed by NOCN.

- Introducing Health and Safety in Construction: Assessment Booklets
- Introducing Plumbing: Practical Tasks with accompanying workbook.

The Employability units require the learners to build a portfolio to demonstrate how they meet the criteria.

All the above materials/assessments will be available on vLearn.
